UPDATE: MISSING PERSON

The Troy Police Department's continuing investigation into the disappearance of Patrick Mikes has resulted in information being obtained that the subject we have in custody may have been involved in financial crimes in Auburn Hills. The information was provided to the Auburn Hills Police Department. An investigation by the Auburn Hills Police Department led to the presentation of a warrant request to the Oakland County Prosecutors Office. The Prosecutor's office has authorized warrants for financial crimes, however the District Court for Auburn Hills closed before the warrant could be presented to a judge/magistrate.

The Troy Police Department will maintain custody of the subject for Auburn Hills until the subject can be formally charged and arraigned tomorrow morning.

We are not able to release the identity of the subject as the subject has not been arraigned on the charges. The subject is still a person of interest in the violent altercation that took place at the residence.
