INDECENT EXPOSURE ARREST

On Saturday, August 3rd, Troy Police Officers responded to 1221 Coolidge, the Old Navy store on a report of an indecent exposure. The Security Officer at the store had observed the subject walking around the store carrying a camera. The subject entered the young girls department, stood behind a display, and watching a young girl. The subject lowered his pants and began stimulating himself while watching the young girl. Officers confronted the subject while he was still in the store. Officers escorted him out of the store. The subject gave Officers a false name. Officers used a finger print scanner at the scene which provided his real name. When advised that he was under arrest he attempted to flee. After a brief struggle Officers managed to handcuff him and place him in the rear seat of the police vehicle. Enroute to the station the subject went wild and kicked out both rear door windows. Other Officers arrived to assist. Subject was placed in leg irons and belly chains and transported to the Lock-Up in a prisoner van.

Officers checked his vehicle and found numerous young girls undergarments in the passenger compartment. They also found several cell phones and a camera which contained pictures of young girls. A tool box in the trunk was also found to contain numerous young girls undergarments, make up, and wigs.
